- d) The question paper in honours papers would have 03 short questions under Section-B out of which 02 have to be attempted.
- e) Allocation of marks for every paper in all the years of B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) shall be 70.
- f) The total time shall be 05 Hours for downloading the question papers, writing answers & uploading the answer sheets.

(The students must note that they are required to finish the writing of answers in three hours while they have to answer one long question less. The time of two hours is more than sufficient for downloading paper and uploading the answer-sheets. They must submit their answer sheets within 5 hours. If they fail to do so they would be afforded another opportunity to appear in the physical examination in such papers after the reopening of the University but, in the interests of the students, the chance will not be counted as a repeat paper. The University would ensure justice to all the students).

3. All the students are directed to take note that the name of the PDF file of the answer script must be (enrollment No.) (Underscore) (Paper Name) while uploading the scanned copy of their hand written answer on the Google Form. For Example (140101155_Legislative Drafting).
4. The Google Form link(s) on which the scanned copy of hand written answers have to be uploaded will be provided in the question paper.
5. The question paper will be downloaded from the University Website i.e <http://rmlnlul.ac.in> at 11:00 AM on the respective exam dates. The link for downloading the question paper(s) is: <http://rmlnlul.ac.in/OnlineSemExam.html>
6. The examinees will have to submit scanned copy of their hand written answers on the Google Form link provided on the question paper latest by 04:00 PM on every respective exam date. (Student himself/herself would be responsible if there is any deduction in the marks due to late submission of his/her answer sheets).
7. As per the guidelines issued by the BCI/UGC, any student who is unable to take this online exam or having appeared therein, is unable to pass such exam/subjects paper, such student shall be entitled to take the re-appear exam/paper, whenever it is held preferably within one month of physical re-opening of the University after the pandemic is averted, without being penalized or prejudiced.
8. Further modalities, if any, shall be informed alongwith the question paper.
