RMLNLU '23

COMMITTEES

RMLNLU aims at producing legal professionals equipped with the skills and vision required to succeed in the professional world. The University has a dynamic student life with the students playing an important role as members of various committees and organisations. The committees comprise various stakeholders, ranging from faculty heads, administrative staff, and student members with each layer contributing to the attainment of the committees' objectives. The students and peers organise all the activities and events leading to the overall development of students. Not only are these committees the best approach to encourage extra-curricular activities but they are also an excellent way to instill the qualities of teamwork and leadership in the students.

Internship & Placement Committee
RMLNLU

Internship & Placement Committee

The Internship and Placement Committee is a student-run body, which works under the able guidance of its faculty advisors to help the students achieve their true potential. The Committee works towards building new relationships and fostering the existing ones with the corporate world, by understanding its changing requirements, and matching them with diverse individual aspirations of the students. The Committee provides a transparent, credible, and accountable setting between prospective employers and the students. It is an integral part of the University's education system and contributes by organising various personality development and awareness programs. It works tirelessly to secure internships and placements for the students, which form an intrinsic part of law school education.

Cultural Committee

The Cultural Committee, Tehzeeb, captures the essence of the culture of Lucknow, one of the major heritage centres of the country. The Committee has truly lived up to the city's repute for the promotion of art and culture repeatedly. Besides encouraging students to take part in cultural events all over the country, the Committee annually organises a three-day-long cultural extravaganza 'OHR' and provides a platform to the student community to nurture and showcase their talents in the fields of dramatics, music, and art. It is also credited for organizing the inter-university annual fest 'Riwaayat', which witnesses the participation of students from across the country and provides a platform to talent and expression.

Debate & Discussion Committee

Progress in legal scholarship and policy academia necessitates exchange of dialogue upheld with effective oratory. The Debate and Discussion Committee has been endeavouring to cultivate an active culture of dialogue and discourse within the University, ever since its establishment in 2008. Foremost events organized yearly by the Committee include its flagship tournament - RML Parliamentary Debate, a legal-themed niche - The Alternative Debate, and National Hindi Debate; witnessing quality participation of students, scholars and professionals from across the nation and abroad. Alongside, it organises year-long intra discussion and debating competitions, workshops and meet-ups in order to provide a platform to the college students to develop, hone and retain their understanding and skills.

Moot Court Committee

The University boasts of laurels secured by its students in national as well as international moots. The Committee plays an important role in pushing the moot culture of the University towards excellence by organizing practice moots and intra-University moot court competitions based on which various national and international moots are assigned to teams as per their performance. The Committee also organizes its flagship event, RMLNLU-SCCOnline International Media Law Moot Court Competition that witnesses participation from both national and international universities every year.

Journal Committee

It is a very important part of legal education to think independently and to pen them down in a manner that others may have an insight into them. The Editorial team at the Journal Committee publishes RMLNLU Law Review and RMLNLU Journal on Communication, Media, Entertainment and Technology Law. The Committee is actively involved in collecting, editing, and improving academic articles for both the journals. Besides this, the committee runs The RMLNLU Law Review Blog and the University's magazine, 'The Lohiyian Post'. The Committee also conducts workshops on legal research and writing and is also responsible in organising the prestigious RMLNLU International Legal Essay Competition.

Sports Committee

The Sports Committee is tasked with the arduous responsibility of choosing and training the students to represent the University at various national sports events. The Committee also organises various sporting events such as football, cricket, badminton, basketball, table tennis, volleyball, and chess throughout the year. Sports Committee organizes the University's three-day annual sports fest, 'Aavahan' attracting massive participation from across India with a host of sporting as well as informal activities. It also organises an intra sports fest ('FENZA') annually bringing a complete dose of thrill, excitement, and energy and includes Panenka, Sahil Zaidi Memorial Volleyball Tournament, Claim the Hoop, Lohiya Premier League, Battledore, and Balls of Fury.

Legal Aid Committee

Law is widely considered an instrument of social change and improvement. However, the law becomes futile if the aggrieved are not aware of their rights or do not have the means to avail remedies. The Legal Aid Committee is manifesting the dream of our mentor Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya into reality by working for the upliftment of the poor and downtrodden. Through camps and campaigns, the Committee helps and increases awareness of these people while it approaches leading lawyers to take up pro bono cases for those who seek such help. The Committee works closely with lawyers and local administration to provide relief to the needy. The Committee also promotes alternative dispute resolution procedures by organizing the RMLNLU National Mediation Competition.

Seminar Committee

Incorporated in 2019, the Seminar Committee is the newest in the RML's portfolio still it has made its significant presence among the legal fraternity due to its firm resolve towards enriching academic culture in RML. The Committee organizes Seminars, Workshops, Lectures & Murals for students with the ultimate goal of enriching them with profound knowledge and wisdom. The Committee is also entrusted with the organization of a very prestigious National level Seminar on behalf of the University. In 2021, the Committee organized a Seminar on the theme of Law and Technology in light of the rapidly changing nature of technology around us and its pervasiveness. The Committee has also undertaken to educate the fresher batch every year regarding the nuances of paper presentation and academic writing, conducts a competitive Freshers' Seminar Competition "Athena."

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY INITIATIVES

Social Responsibility Initiatives at the University encourage students to imbibe the qualities of enlightened leadership, and thereby instil in them a level of trust and confidence about themselves and the community. Over the years, the students and faculty at RMLNLU have actively participated in outreach program initiatives where they contribute their knowledge, skills, and technical expertise to the community.

LEGAL AID CLINIC

Legal Aid Clinic of the University was successfully put into operation by the Legal Aid Committee on August 4, 2015, inaugurated by Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rakesh Tiwari, Senior Judge, Allahabad High Court. In furtherance of the spirit of Article 39A of the Indian Constitution, the Legal Aid Clinic is tasked with the responsibility of providing easily accessible legal relief to the indigents and the backward sections of our society. It works as a primary legal centre where the Para-legal Volunteers (PLVs) from the University provide basic legal assistance to the people. The thrust is on providing services like legal advice and assisting in the drafting of notices, replies, applications, petitions, etc. as per the mandate of the National Legal Services Authority (NALSA) and provisions of Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987.

Set up at the university main gate, the Clinic is open for two hours every day. The clinic also conducts awareness drives at various targeted areas in and around the city to educate people about their legal rights and reach out to help them. One of the recently started initiatives is Project RTI, which aims to fetch information about the various government policies and organisations, as and when required. The PLVs managing the clinic are selected through a two-stage recruitment process. Trainee Paralegal Volunteers are also inducted through a rigorous interview process to expose and sensitize them to the significance of 'Justice for all'.

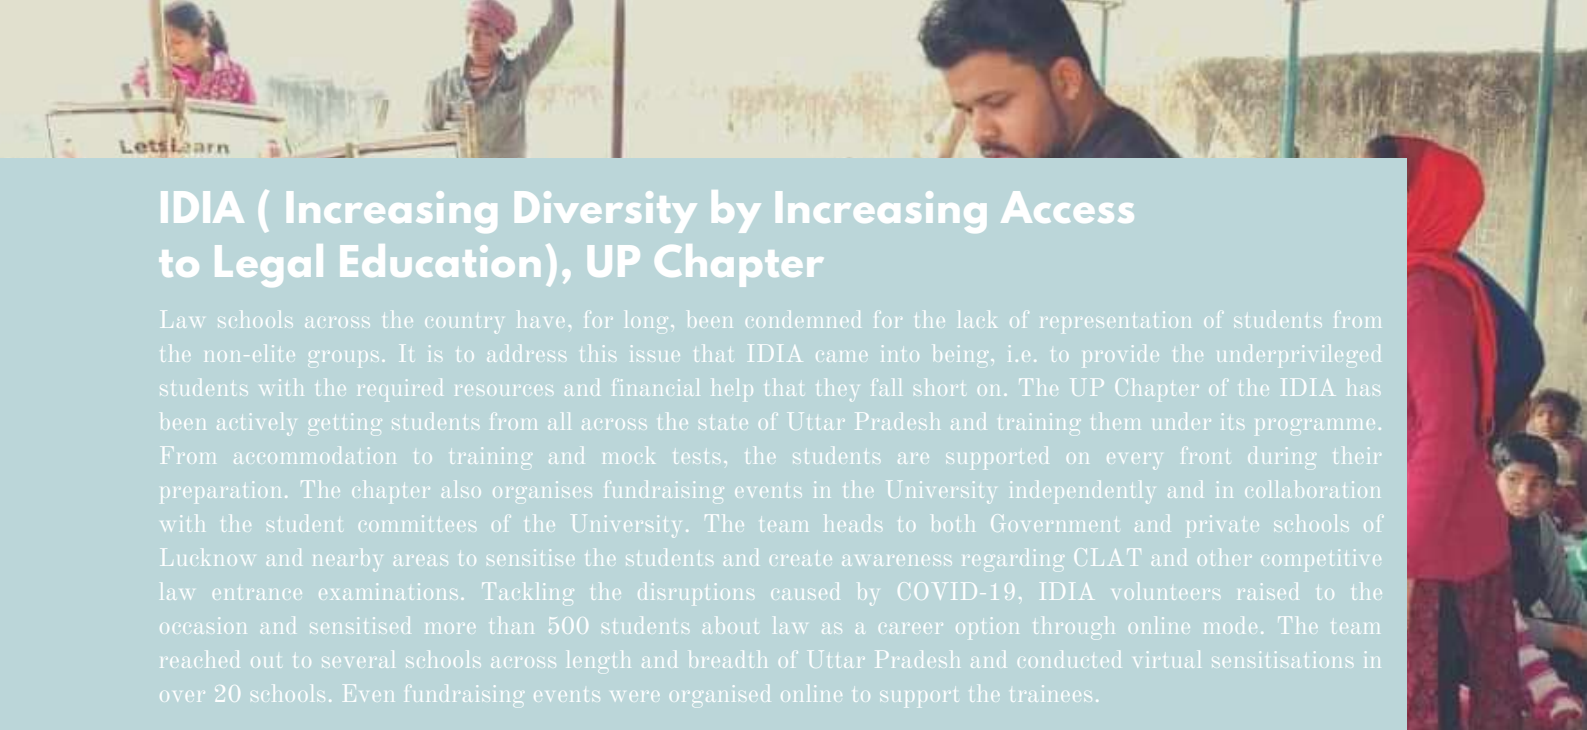

The Clinic has received, in the past four years, a plethora of cases ranging from property disputes to transgender rights. Cases related to labour law, criminal law, and consumer disputes have come before the Clinic. Several cases have been referred to an able pool of lawyers working pro bono with the Clinic, and some of the clients were advised to indulge in mediation.

In addition, PLVs also work along with the Legal Aid Committee, RMLNLU by participating in the LAC's Shiksha initiatives, where young, underprivileged children are sensitised to basic issues of law. PLVs have also visited the Lucknow Jail under the Legal Aid Committee's Jail Project, ASHA initiative, where under-trial prisoners are assisted with any possible legal help. The Legal Aid Camp organized annually in a remote location on the outskirts of Lucknow has also seen enthusiastic participation by the PLVs, to aid villagers in both legal and non-legal issues

BLOOD CONNECT LUCKNOW

BloodConnect Foundation is youth run organisation aimed at solving the problem of blood shortage in India. Launched on 1st April 2010 under the National Service Scheme wing of the Indian Institute of Technology Delhi, the team has been working to ensure a continuous and sufficient supply of blood to government blood banks across India. It has been engaged in helping those in dire need of blood through a dynamic, 24x7 helpline system, along with spreading awareness about the cause throughout the nation by establishing a youth network to eliminate the problem from its root and conducting voluntary blood donation camps on a regular basis. BloodConnect, Lucknow is a relatively new team, with its first RMLNLU inductions taking place in 2016. Despite being a relatively new team, Bloodconnect Lucknow has been doing a tremendous job at the National level and most of the volunteers (belonging to the University) have contributed to BloodConnect in ways more than one. From giving the foundation its President, Executive, Vice President and City Presidents (all RMLNLU students), BloodConnect Lucknow has come a long way, saving hundreds of lives, and has collected about 1000 units of blood in Lucknow during this pandemic itself.

IDIA (Increasing Diversity by Increasing Access to Legal Education), UP Chapter

Law schools across the country have, for long, been condemned for the lack of representation of students from the non-elite groups. It is to address this issue that IDIA came into being, i.e. to provide the underprivileged students with the required resources and financial help that they fall short on. The UP Chapter of the IDIA has been actively getting students from all across the state of Uttar Pradesh and training them under its programme. From accommodation to training and mock tests, the students are supported on every front during their preparation. The chapter also organises fundraising events in the University independently and in collaboration with the student committees of the University. The team heads to both Government and private schools of Lucknow and nearby areas to sensitise the students and create awareness regarding CLAT and other competitive law entrance examinations. Tackling the disruptions caused by COVID-19, IDIA volunteers raised to the occasion and sensitised more than 500 students about law as a career option through online mode. The team reached out to several schools across length and breadth of Uttar Pradesh and conducted virtual sensitisations in over 20 schools. Even fundraising events were organised online to support the trainees.

THE LEGAL AID CAMP

The Legal Aid Camp is the primary initiative of the Legal Aid Committee and the Legal Aid Clinic. In furtherance of this endeavour, the students go on pre-camp visits in various districts near Lucknow and identify problems of the people living there. According to the problems encountered, a district/village is chosen to set up a camp and then in collaboration with District Legal Services Authority, Block Development Officer, etc. legal help to the residents of rural areas of our society is provided. The Committee also provides for basic health amenities and then this camp is succeeded by various follow-up camps to ensure that the help provided has benefitted the people.

PROJECT ASHA

Legal Aid Committee started a prison project namely Project Asha with the help of District Legal Services Authority ('DLSA') in which students from the university visit the prison to make the prisoners aware of their rights and duties. These students undergo classroom training in law on prison rights and criminal procedure, in general. This project aims to fight for the justice of prisoners, where despite the offer of free legal aid, the benefits of the scheme fail to reach many poor prisoners. The Committee regularly sends some of its members to the Lucknow Central Prison where they inquire about ongoing trials of the prisoners and conduct a survey about other factors. Based on reports prepared by visiting members, further legal aid is provided in association with the DLSA.

PROJECT SHIKSHA

The Legal Aid Committee under the Shiksha initiative collaborates with various charity institutions, schools, and institutions working for the welfare of the children and imparting basic education. The topics are varied depending on the age group of the children to be addressed and include basic features of the constitution, sensitization initiatives like road safety, environment protection, and sanitation, etc. In furtherance of this endeavour, the Legal Aid Committee has collaborated with several organisations during the past year.

POLICE- ACADEMIA INTERACTION FORUM

The initiative was launched to foster research and training in the police department. Under this initiative, students and faculty members of the University designed research activities for the police officers and assist them in understanding the relevant rules and regulations. It also aims to help the investigating officers and police to update their knowledge about legal issues while gaining an insight into the jurisprudence of law.

RESEARCH CENTRES AND SOCIETIES

CENTRE FOR CRIMINAL JUSTICE ADMINISTRATION ('CCJA')

The Centre for Criminal Justice Administration was established in the year 2008. It aims to dichotomously promote students' and researchers' interest and influence in the academic discipline and practical application of criminal law. Right from its inception, the CCJA collaborated with the Bureau of Police Research and Development, Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India to conduct a series of training and sensitisation programmes for Prison officials from across the country. CCJA also organised several national seminars on issues of contemporary relevance such as cyber crimes, terrorism, etc. In the year 2010 itself, CCJA undertook a major research project to study the prosecution system in Uttar Pradesh and its report submitted in 2012 made policy recommendations for overhauling the prosecution apparatus. This research project was sponsored by the Department of Higher Education, Government of Uttar Pradesh. Further, under the aegis of the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights, Government of India, CCJA had organised a regional consultation of the states of North India for making recommendations and suggestions on the draft Bill that was later enacted into the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012. In collaboration with the Directorate of Prosecution, Uttar Pradesh, a series of training and capacity building programmes were started by CCJA in 2011-2012. The CCJA is also working on a UNICEF-sponsored mega-project since the year 2016 for strengthening Child Protection System in Uttar Pradesh. The student members of CCJA are also engaged in carrying out research and consultancy projects assigned by the Directorate of Prosecution, Uttar Pradesh in the year 2019-2020. The Centre also manages a blog that accepts academically-oriented submissions, both in the sole discipline of criminal law or intertwined with other socio-legal disciplines, on a rolling basis from members of the legal fraternity.

DEBATING SOCIETY ('DEBSOC')

The Society aims to provide students with a platform to hone their skills while debating different motions. The objective of the Society is to offer a challenging and rewarding debating experience to students while teaching critical and strategic thinking skills, high-quality research, and argument framing. These pedagogical objectives subsequently produce competitive debate teams. The Society seeks to create a teamwork environment where students learn to work for their own improvement as well as the success of their peers.

FINANCIAL LAWS SIMPLIFICATION PROJECT ('FILSIP')

Conceptualized by Excellence Enablers, Finsec Law Advisors, and Association for Development of Securities Market ('ADSM'), the objective of FILSIP is to simplify the financial sector laws in India. Originally drafted a long time ago, or inelegantly drafted in recent times, the laws require coherence and simplicity so that they are better understood and easily complied with. FILSIP aims to simplify and rationalize these laws to enable their better understanding by various stakeholders. The primary exercise of FILSIP, i.e., simplification and redrafting of the financial sector laws is executed by the student volunteers from our university under the guidance of the Organisers. Aimed at the holistic development of the students, FILSIP is a blend of knowledge-based and skill-based education where the students inclined towards the financial sector are committed to improve the state of the regulatory architecture and contribute meaningfully to the financial laws. The project aims to simplify the laws through repositioning of text, elimination of and by suggesting changes to the existing regulations based on their understanding of the law, economics, and the existing financial environment.

SOCIETY FOR EXCELLENCE IN ARBITRATION LAW ('SEAL')

The Society was formed with an aim to promote academic discourse in the field of arbitration. It regularly organises lectures and discussion sessions on various issues of arbitration. The Society through its arbitration updates, allows students to get a grasp of the prevalent disputes and legal questions. To promote legal scholarship in arbitration, the Society also runs a blog, RMLNLU Arbitration Law Blog. The blog is well-known among the legal fraternity and has been ranked as one of the best arbitration blogs in the world.

SOCIETY FOR EXCELLENCE IN CONSTITUTIONAL LAW AND PUBLIC POLICY ('SECLPP')

The Society consists of Constitutional Law enthusiasts who aid the society in organising spirited sessions on trending constitutional law and public policy issues. The Society is also entrusted with the management of the RMLNLU Constitutional Law and Public Policy Blog, organising various competitions and inviting dignitaries for guest lectures. The purpose of the Society is to infuse a sense of passion for the subject and develop the fundamental and elemental knowledge of how constitutional law and public policy play an imperative role in shaping the society through not only theoretical classroom education but also a more hands-on approach.

SOCIETY FOR EXCELLENCE IN CORPORATE AND COMPETITION LAW ('SECCL')

The Society organises various sessions of discussions and lectures for students to equip themselves with contemporary aspects of company law and its allied fields, including competition law and insolvency and bankruptcy law. The Society opens its doors to students of all batches to acquaint them with the core concepts of the subject as well as to update the students of various amendments and contemporary rulings. PREVIOUS RECRUITERS

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

The Recruitment Process is conducted by the Internship and Placement Committee of the University. It is a holistic process, which commences in the month of February, and is aimed at facilitating the reach between graduating students and prospective recruiters. The recruitment process is governed by the Recruitment Process Rules, which outline the duties and responsibilities of the Placement Cell, the Students, as well as the Prospective Recruiters. These rules expedite the procedure to ensure optimal flexibility to the students as well as the recruiters.

The recruiters are encouraged to conduct pre-placement talks highlighting crucial principle features of their organisation, job profile, terms and conditions of employment, remuneration, and other relevant information. The recruiters are urged to indicate their preferred dates for such talks to the Placement Cell either by e-mail or telephonic communication a week prior to their arrival.

In furtherance of the process, the organisations are requested to register themselves with the Placement Committee with their preferred dates in the final placement schedule, by filling the recruitment form. The recruiters are at liberty to determine their eligibility criteria and the policy for the screening and recruitment process. Organisations can also opt for telephonic interviews and interviews via videoconferencing, and the Placement Committee shall facilitate their process as and when required. In case the recruiters do not want to conduct a pre-interview screening, the CVs of the interested and eligible students shall be forwarded to them, before the final interview. The Placement Committee works to ensure that final recruitments are conducted in a fair and transparent manner so as to maximize the interest of both the students and the recruiters.
