1. ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, was established by an Act of the Legislature of Uttar Pradesh in 2005 (U.P. Act No.28 of 2005) which came into force on 4th of January 2006. The University became functional since July, 2006. The University has been established to advance and disseminate learning and knowledge of law and legal process and to develop in the students and research scholars a sense of responsibility to serve the society. Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, which is fully funded by the State Government of Uttar Pradesh, provides excellent infrastructural facilities and academic environment to the students. The fully residential University is a complete township and has separate hostels for boys and girl students along with the mess facilities. The University Library, Hostels etc. are provided with the Wi-Fi connectivity to the Internet. The University has a World class Moot Court Hall, where the mooting and debate competitions are organized which attracts participants from all over India. There is a rigorous internship programme which every student of the University has to undergo as a part of the curriculum during vacation period. The University also has a well equipped seminar hall and video conferencing hall, wherein seminars/workshops/ interactive sessions are conducted on regular intervals. Located in the South-West part of Lucknow City, the University has forty acres of sprawling green campus in LDA's Kanpur Road Scheme. The University is situated in the heart of the city. The distance from Amausi airport is three kilometers and nearly seven kilometers from Lucknow railway station. Sanjay Gandhi Post Graduate Institute of Medical Sciences and Baba Saheb Bhimrao Ambedkar University are the other neighbouring educational institutions. The District Court, High Court of Judicature at Allahabad, Lucknow Bench and Vidhan Sabha are all in the radius of ten kilometers.

The University offers five year B.A. LL.B.(Hons.) Programme and two year LL.M. Programme. The University follows a semester system. The University, in order to develop a closer link between the teacher and taught, has introduced the Mentorship Programme. There are various Committees, having students as its members, wherein the students decide the functions, events and other activities. In order to provide transparency in the examination system, the students are shown their answer sheets for any change in the award already given.
