MESSAGE FROM THE HON'BLE VICE CHANCELLOR

It is my pleasure to extend a warm welcome to you on behalf of Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, Lucknow.

Our institution takes pride in presenting the students of Batch 2025, a group of talented individuals who have undergone rigorous academic training and gained practical experience.

Prof. (Dr.) Amar Pal Singh

This batch has been at this prestigious university for five years, during which time they have been provided with a holistic education emphasizing professional ethics, problem-solving, and critical thinking. In addition to lectures and case law studies, they participated in simulated moot court sessions, internships, and conversations with law and policy administration experts.

With internships at prestigious law firms, think tanks, international organizations, senior litigators, non-governmental organizations, and the higher court, they have obtained invaluable practical experience that has given them a thorough grasp of the legal system.

The main objective of our institution has been to provide a healthy atmosphere for the students so they can reach their full potential. The students have been equipped with industry-relevant skills to analyze contemporary issues and contribute meaningfully to the existing ecosystem.

I warmly welcome recruiters visiting our university, trusting that you'll find a remarkable blend of skill, dedication, and enthusiasm in the students. The Class of 2025 is poised for success, and we eagerly anticipate the prospect of a meaningful partnership with your esteemed organization. Thank you for considering the wealth of talent within our university, and we look forward to the possibilities that lie ahead.

MESSAGE FROM THE HEAD OF DEPARTMENT

“

It is with great privilege and pleasure that I present the students of the Batch of 2025 of Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, Lucknow. We are committed to making excellence a habit and transforming today's bright minds into tomorrow's leaders who unwaveringly pursue one goal with unrelenting excellence and emerge as the vanguards of the future of India.

Prof. (Dr.) A. P. Singh

The batch of 2025 has strived for the best during and after the COVID-19 lockdown period with their zeal for learning and gaining the experiences of a worthy lawyer by not limiting their endeavour within the four walls of the University. This batch's continued quality of performance in national and international moot court competitions, seminars, conferences, sports, and cultural events proves the value and effort we add to contemporary legal education in this country. Their excellence has allowed the University to advance towards its excellence goal.

I firmly believe that our students, with their strong foundation of legal concepts and practical experiences, shall be invaluable assets to any organisation. I welcome you, the prospective recruiters, to visit the University and test this belief. The limitless potential and talent will convince you of these determined, driven, and confident individuals who will immensely contribute to their organisation. I would also like to take a moment to seek your invaluable suggestions so that the future generation of this 'Temple of Learning' may be able to take advantage of your humble guidance.

MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRPERSON

“

My sincere thanks and a warm welcome to the prospective recruiters of Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, Lucknow, who have been recruiting the country's best young brains of the future legal profession. Since its inception, the University has provided its students with a high standard of academic education along with a holistic development.

Dr. Atul Kumar Tiwari

The University houses a top-notch, fully equipped campus and some of the country's most experienced and brilliant teaching faculties while fostering fresh teaching talent, making for a competitive fuse of academia.

It gives me immense pleasure to introduce to you the Class of 2025. The Class of 2025 has explored its potential by demonstrating extraordinary enthusiasm, dedication, and commitment. During their stay at the University campus, besides being exposed to a rigorous curriculum in law and allied disciplines, these students have also imbibed moral values and, therefore, look at the socio-legal issues with a blend of pragmatic and ethical perspectives. Such a combination of talent and ethics hardly goes unrewarded. The University has played a pivotal role in fostering holistic development among its students, with a focus on enhancing both intellectual quotient (IQ) and emotional quotient (EQ).

The students have spent their five years gaining practical experience through internships with law firms, corporate institutions, reputed NGOs, public sector enterprises, and high-level litigants. They have also brought laurels to the University through various activities including conferences, moot courts, mediation competitions, sports, literary competitions and debates. I am confident that the Class of 2025 will be fully capable of handling the difficulties and complex professional duties that will arise in the future.

I cordially invite you and your prestigious organisation to participate in the recruitment process. The brochure provides a detailed description of all the pertinent information for your kind perusal. I look forward to establishing a long-lasting partnership with your prestigious organisation and the University.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University was established in 2005 by the Government of Uttar Pradesh under the U.P. Act No. 28 of 2005. The University is recognised by the Bar Council of India and the University Grants Commission. Despite being relatively new, the University has successfully produced skilled, dynamic, and socially responsible legal professionals and has become a leading institution for legal education in the country. The campus is spread over forty-two acres and boasts modern facilities, including the Madhu Limaye Library, which is considered one of the best in the country. Students have access to on-campus and off-campus legal resources and digital databases. The University has also established research centres and societies to promote interdisciplinary research in specific fields of law.

The University offers undergraduate and graduate programs with a total intake of 180 students per year, which includes a five-year integrated B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) program, one-year LL.M. program, one-year postgraduate diploma courses in Cyber Law, Intellectual Property Rights, Media Law, Entertainment and Ethics, as well as a Ph.D. program in Law and Humanities. The curriculum emphasises practical knowledge along with theoretical concepts to provide a deeper understanding of the nuances of the law. Students are encouraged to participate in various student committees, which help improve group dynamics, team management, and organisational skills, ultimately producing great future leaders. The University also prides itself on cultural diversity, with students from all over India contributing to academic and co-curricular activities.

The University's alums have achieved great success in their respective fields, holding key positions in both the public and private sectors. These achievements are evidence of the pool of talent and skills that the University has nurtured through its holistic curriculum for legal education.

MADHU LIMAYE LIBRARY

Madhu Limaye Library is the knowledge and resource hub of the university. The library is giving every possible support to the academic and research activities of the university. The core mission of the library is to be the partner in the overall development of the university by supporting teachers, research scholars, and students through its smart infrastructure and most updated learning resources. The core goal of the library is to appreciate legal education through research and innovative learning skills.

Dr. Maneesh Kumar Bajpai
Librarian In-charge

"Madhu Limaye Library" is known for its quality and valuable collections on legal and allied subjects to support the students, research scholars and faculty members. It was named after a very renowned socialist leader Sh. Madhu Limaye ji. The fully automated smart library system makes it a state of the art library. The learning environment and the blend of core print and electronic research resources make it a world-class law library. The library is a two floor centrally air-conditioned independent building with Wi-Fi environment. The national and international electronic learning resources may be accessed 24x7 from any corner of the university and even from outside the campus through remote access service. The library has its own 'Digital Lab' having 45 high-end all-in-one desktop computers for electronic and online research. The scanning, printing and photocopying facility is also available along with a digital lab. The Lab for differently-abled has also been established in the library to facilitate such students. The plagiarism check service is centrally available in the library to promote research and academic scholarship. The advanced video-conferencing facility is made available in the library to conduct online lectures and academic communication around the globe. Web 2.0 enabled Web-OPAC of the Library is the gateway of information search and access to millions of information contents.

By providing access to comprehensive legal and allied subjects, alongside a smart infrastructure, the library prepares students to excel academically and professionally, making them highly desirable candidates for recruiters seeking well-rounded, resourceful individuals.

GRADING SYSTEM

The grading system of the University follows a pointer system, which is operative in the following manner:

Each course is worth 100 marks. The overall structure of the distribution of marks in a theory-based course is such that 30 marks are allotted to continuous internal assessment during the semester, while 70 marks are allotted for the end-semester examinations.

Each course carries a weightage of 5 credits. Semester Performance Index (SPI) weighs the average performance in the semester, whereas the CPI weighs the same across the academic sessions attended/passed so far. A student will be deemed to have completed the requirements for graduation if he/she has:

- a. passed all prescribed courses;
- b. $CPI > 5.0$, a student having any pending F grades will not be allowed to graduate; and
- c. has no case of indiscipline pending against him.

POINT SCALE

FOR GRANTING GRADES BASED ON ABSOLUTE MARKS

Marks Range (Out of 100)	Grade	Grade Point
90 -100	O (Outstanding)	10
80-89	A+ (Distinction)	9
70-79	A (Very Good)	8
60-69	B+ (Good)	7
50-59	B (Fair)	6
40-49	P (Pass)	5
00-39	F (Fail)	4

COMMITTEES

INTERNSHIP AND PLACEMENT COMMITTEE

The Internship and Placement Committee is a student-run body working under the guidance of its faculty advisors to help students achieve their true potential. The Committee works towards building new relationships and fostering the existing ones with the corporate world by understanding its changing requirements and matching them with the diverse individual aspirations of the students. It is an integral part of the University's education system and contributes by organising various personality development and awareness programs. It works tirelessly to secure internships and placements for the students, which form an intrinsic part of law school education.

MOOT COURT COMMITTEE

The Moot Court Committee is an official student-run body of members across the five batches of the B.A. LL.B. (Hons.) program. It is entrusted with the responsibility of administering mooting activities and events at the University. The Committee conducts an annual Intra Moot Court Competition for allocating National Moots to interested students. The International Moots, on the other hand, are allotted through Open Challenge Rounds. It also conducts several practice moots for the freshers' batch. In addition, the Committee organises orientations and demonstrative workshops, which assist the student body in getting accustomed to the nuances of mooting.

LEGAL AID COMMITTEE

The Legal Aid Committee was set up in 2009 with a vision to promote legal and social awareness among the sections of society that need it the most. To further its aims, the Committee undertakes various projects such as the Legal Aid Camp, which seeks to help free legal aid and social welfare reach administratively remote areas; LAC- Project Asha, which provides access to free legal assistance to undertrial prisoners; and LAC-Shiksha, which works to fill education gaps within our country. Within its umbrella also falls the ADR Cell, which organises all the ADR initiatives within the University, such as the Intra-University Client Counselling and Negotiation-Mediation Competition, CLINEME. The ADR Cell conducts the University's premier ADR competition, the 2TG-RMLNLU International Mediation Competition. The Committee also works with the University's Legal Services Clinic to ensure access to legal awareness and fair representation for all, and for the organisation of Legal Aid Camps.

SPORTS COMMITTEE

The Sports Committee is responsible for choosing and training the students to represent the University at various Inter College Sports events. This year, a contingent was sent to NLU Jodhpur for their Inter College Sports fest 'YUVARDHA' and bagged the position of Second Runner Ups. Sports Committee organizes the Inter College Annual Sports Fest – 'AAVAHAN', in which our University hosts various law schools and other universities from across the country, aiming to conduct multiple sporting events under several formats over a span of four days.

DDC

DEBATE AND DISCUSSION COMMITTEE

The Debate and Discussion Committee has been fostering an active culture of dialogue and discourse within the University since its establishment in 2008. Foremost events organized by the Committee include its flagship tournament for the last eleven years – UP's largest Asian Parliamentary Debate, the RML Parliamentary Debate, a legal-themed niche debate called the Alternative Debate with industry insiders, and the Online RML Pre WUDC British Parliamentary Debate that has been introduced this year, to great success. Events like this witness the quality participation of numerous students, scholars, as well as professionals from across the nation and abroad.

JOURNAL RML
NLU
COMMITTEE

JOURNAL COMMITTEE

It is an essential part of legal education to think independently and pen them down in a manner that others may have an insight into them. The Editorial team at the Journal Committee publishes two journals RMLNLU Law Review, currently running in its IVth Volume, and RMLNLU Journal on Communication, Media, Entertainment and Technology Law, presently running in its 11th Volume. The Committee also runs the RMLNLU Law Review Blog to encourage discourse on contemporary legal issues. It also conducts an annual flagship event, RMLNLU International Legal Essay Writing Competition (RILEC) and other workshops. The Committee also runs the online college magazine - The Lohiyan Post and conducts the Annual Literary Festival, EOS.

COMMITTEE TO ORGANISE SEMINARS, WORKSHOPS, EXTRA-MURALS, AND SPECIAL LECTURES

The Committee to Organise Seminars, Workshops, Extra-Murals, and Special Lectures, as its name suggests, has been given the crucial responsibility of organising different types of Academic and Intellectual discussions primarily serving Legal Academia. Notable activities include a symposium on the 'Role of National Educational Policy, 2020' with Deputy Chief Minister of Uttar Pradesh, Mr. Brijesh Pathak as the Chief Guest, a panel discussion on "Revamping the Criminal Law Landscape " with guests Dr. Subash C. Raina and Dr. Sarfaraz A. Khan. Additionally, the committee hosted a special lecture by Mr. Swapnil Tripathi on "The Idea of Separation of Power and Indian Constitution," the 2nd Edition of the National Seminar on Law & Technology, and a conference on 'Institutional Arbitration in India: Challenges and Comparison with International Practices' with the well-known name in the field of arbitration, Mr. Tariq Khan as the guest.

CULTURAL COMMITTEE

The Cultural Committee, Tehzeeb, is the quintessential personification of Lucknow's culture and heritage. Tehzeeb offers a creative space for students to indulge in and showcase their talents. With their celebrations of intra-college events like- Jashn-e-Rang, Bharatotsav, Ohr, etc., the Committee ensures students pursue their artistic passion while celebrating Indian culture as well as global heritage. Riwaayat, the flagship inter-college cultural fest, is a four-day festival witnessing students across the nation interacting and competing under one umbrella. Community Service Day is another initiative of theirs to promote community spirit and to do their part for society.

STUDENT SOCIETIES

SOCIETY FOR EXCELLENCE IN ARBITRATION LAW

The Society for Excellence in Arbitration Law is an alternative forum aimed at disseminating the discourse of arbitration as a subject matter amongst the students, academics and generally interested fraternity. The society started as a platform by a group of students interested in arbitration law to have thought provoking discussions. It aims at instilling an inquisitive approach in the minds of the student fraternity of RMLNLU to enable them to comprehend the scope of arbitration law through discussions, workshops, conferences, and a scholarly blog.

LEGAL SERVICES CLINIC

Founded in August 2015, the University's Legal Services Clinic, a Regulation 24 body under the National Legal Services Authority, offers free legal aid to the underprivileged as per Article 39A of India's Constitution. Located at the University's entrance, it comprises senior Para Legal Volunteers and junior Trainee PLVs, available daily from 6-8 PM. The Clinic organizes city-wide awareness campaigns about legal rights and handles various cases like labor rights, domestic violence, and property disputes.

PROBONO CLUB

The Pro Bono Club at Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, established in January 2023 under India's Department of Justice Nyaya Bandhu programme, enhances access to justice for the underprivileged. The Club has organized RTI workshops, prison camps, and writing competitions, and aided the District Legal Services Authority. Its goal is to connect people with Pro Bono Advocates for free legal counsel, with Club members assisting in legal research and documentation. Working alongside the University's Legal Services Clinic, the Club strengthens the University's legal aid efforts.

DEBATING SOCIETY ('DEBSOC')

The RMLNLU Debating Society, under the Debate and Discussion Committee, fosters university-level parliamentary debating. This academic year saw the return of offline debates, with the Society training first and second-year debaters in various skills, including motion analysis and adjudication. New members were inducted to broaden participation in RML's debating community. RML students excelled in prestigious international and national competitions, achieving accolades like Open Best Speaker and Open Champion titles, and Best Adjudicator awards. They also served as Core Adjudicators in numerous national tournaments.

KAUTILYA SOCIETY, RMLNLU CHAPTER

The society maintains a blog on public policy, featuring a new blog writing contest this year. It continues releasing Spotify podcasts on legal and policy reforms, including new Criminal Laws. Additionally, the Society hosted a two-day 'Policy Adda' on Gender, Child Offences, and Personal Liberty, and drafted comments on the Uniform Civil Code and Sustainable Finance through Green and Blue Bonds. Collaborating with Dhir and Dhir law firm, it's developing policy papers on various national schemes and AI Regulations. The Society's current focus is an Independent Research Project on rural India's Digital Literacy and infrastructure, with plans for a future 'Book Adda' event.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY INITIATIVES

INCREASING DIVERSITY BY INCREASING ACCESS TO LEGAL EDUCATION, UP CHAPTER

IDIA is an organisation that aims to provide resources and financial assistance to underprivileged students who want to pursue a legal education. The organisation has a chapter in Uttar Pradesh, which has been functional for the past seven years.

The chapter consists of five verticals that sensitise underprivileged students about legal education, select and train students for law entrance examinations, conduct fundraising events, conduct legal awareness sessions in collaboration with NGOs, and nurture IDIA scholars who crack CLAT and join National Law Universities. The IDIA UP Chapter has sensitised over 810 students in the current session and has conducted over 450 IDIA National Aptitude Tests (INATs) across the state.

BLOODCONNECT FOUNDATION, LUCKNOW CHAPTER

BloodConnect Foundation is a youth-led organisation established in 2010 to address blood shortages in India. They ensure a consistent blood supply to government and private blood banks by providing a 24x7 helpline system and spreading awareness. They also hold voluntary blood donation camps and have established a youth network. BloodConnect Lucknow is a strong team that, through collective effort, hard work, and dedication, has significantly contributed to the national effort and the saving around 3000 lives per year by collecting approximately 1,000 units of blood.

FLAGSHIP EVENTS

MANTHAN

An annual flagship event organized by the Internship & Placement Committee, MANTHAN brings together industry experts to guide students in various legal fields through competitions like Mock Personal Interviews, Group Discussions, and Drafting Competitions.

National Seminar on Law and Technology

Conducted by the Seminar Committee, this event explores the intersection of law and rapidly evolving technology, featuring distinguished guests and discussions on research papers, case analyses, and articles by experts in the field.

The Alternative Debate

An innovative initiative by the Debate and Discussion Committee, focusing on areas like Insolvency Law, Competition Law, Data Protection Law, and Arbitration Law, featuring speakers from reputed law firms.

2TG-RMLNLU International Mediation Competition

Organised by the Legal Aid Committee, this premier ADR event, sponsored by 2 Temple Gardens (2TG), features global assessors, showcasing the university's commitment to excellence in mediation and international legal skills.

RMLNLU-Kochhar & Co Arbitration Law Moot

In its inaugural year, this arbitration law moot organized by the Moot Court Committee in collaboration with Kochhar & Co highlights cutting-edge legal perspectives. Partnering with prominent law firms and institutions, the event focuses on fostering expertise in the dynamic field of arbitration law.

Legal Aid Camp

The annual initiative by the Legal Aid Committee and the Legal Services Clinic, providing free legal assistance to address pressing issues in mandated regions and promote socio-economic welfare schemes.

Foreign Direct Investment International Arbitration Moot, 2023

Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University, Lucknow, hosted the prestigious FDI Moot, 2023 from the 2nd to the 5th of November 2023, marking the first time the event has been hosted in Asia.

The FDI Moot, is a prestigious international competition organized annually by the Center for International Legal Studies (CILS), in collaboration with Pepperdine, DIS, and King's College London.

The FDI Moot, 2023, held in hybrid mode, attracted participants from over 40+ countries. The event was enriched by distinguished arbitrators who thoroughly enjoyed engaging in the rounds. The Organising Committee ensured that amidst the competitive fervor, participants and arbitrators alike carried home unforgettable memories of Lucknow. The 2023 edition of FDI was not only a global competition but also an event where unity in diversity was witnessed in its truest form.

This diverse array of teams from around the world included 50 teams—8 Indian teams and 42 international teams, with over 200 participants contributing to the dynamic atmosphere. The presence of 40 arbitrators added to the esteemed nature of the competition, enhancing the overall quality and fairness of the proceedings. The Valedictory Ceremony of the Competition was graced by the presence of Hon'ble Justice Sanjay Karol. This was one the biggest Mooting events of the year hosted in India, and a source of great opportunity and exposure for the RML fraternity.

PREVIOUS RECRUITERS

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

Register

The Recruiters are requested to register themselves with the Recruitment Co-ordination Committee through the Placement Cell Email ID with their preferred dates in the final placement schedule by filling out the recruitment form.

Pre-Placement Talks

The recruiters are encouraged to conduct pre-placement talks highlighting crucial principle features of their organisation, job profile, terms and conditions of employment, remuneration, and other relevant information. The recruiters are urged to indicate their preferred dates for such talks to the Placement Cell either by e-mail or telephonic communication a week prior to their arrival.

Screening Process and Final Interviews

The recruiters are at liberty to determine their eligibility criteria and the policy for the screening and recruitment process. Organisations can also opt for telephonic interviews and interviews via videoconferencing, and the Placement Committee shall facilitate their process as and when required. In case the recruiters do not want to conduct a pre-interview screening, the CVs of the interested and eligible students shall be forwarded to them before the final interview.

Disclosure of Offers

The recruiters, after the final interview, shall declare the list of shortlisted candidates. This disclosure shall contain the job description, designation, remuneration, location, and other relevant terms and conditions of the employment. Offer letter(s), if any shall then be sent to the 'RCC' - acceptance or rejection of which shall be conveyed by the student directly to the recruiter. Such acceptance and rejection shall be in writing, marking the Recruitment Coordination Committee.

TRAVEL & STAY | VIRTUAL FACILITIES

The Internship and Placement Committee can arrange Online Interactive Platforms for keeping the process safe and sound. We can also arrange accommodation at the University Guest House, on prior intimation to the University.

Alternatively, recruiters may choose to stay at a hotel of their choice. Some of the hotels along with the addresses and phone numbers are mentioned below:
