

JUNE 2023

In celebration of Pride Month, the Cultural Committee unveiled an inclusive logo to support the LGBTQIA+ community. They hosted impactful events, including the 'Myth Buster' session on Tehzeeb's Instagram, which addressed misconceptions about LGBTQIA+ topics through informative posts and interactive stories. Additionally, the committee conducted the Queeriosity quiz on Instagram, enhancing participants' knowledge of LGBTQIA+ history, culture, and rights. These initiatives honored Pride Month and demonstrated the committee's commitment to fostering an inclusive environment, aligning with Tehzeeb's vision of embracing diversity and championing equality.

JULY 2023

17th July (Orientation)

A significant task on the agenda was to conduct the "Orientation" of the newly enrolled batch of 2028. The committee orientation took place on August 17th and began with the committee members introducing themselves and the various activities they spearhead throughout the year. To make the event more interactive, a fun quiz and an impromptu unique talent show were also conducted. The students turned up in large numbers and appreciated the chance for two-way interaction. After that, various societies associated with Tehzeeb such as the Dramatics Society Naqaab, Dance Club Natraj, Music Club Sargam, etc. also acquainted the students with their work. This event culminated with a doubt clearance session in the form of a Q&A.

26th July (Kargil Diwas)

The celebration of Kargil Diwas commenced on 26th July in the Seminar Hall, honoring the courageous warriors who gave their lives to bring the Kargil War to a glorious end and encouraging our college's budding poets. The event started with a mesmerizing speech from our Chief Guest Major Lt. Gen Dushyant Singh, PVSM, AVSM (Retd.) and our respected Vice Chancellor Sir, followed by a Poetry Competition in honor of the celebration. In the latter half of the day a Candle March was organized to pay respects and marked the event's closure.

AUGUST 2023

The month of August was an eventful one for the Cultural Committee of RMLNLU and for the university itself.

14th August (Blood Donation Camp)

In addition to the entertainment sessions and wellness activities, the committee organized a blood donation camp to support the local healthcare community and raise awareness about the importance of blood donation. The camp saw an enthusiastic participation from both residents and volunteers, who came forward to donate blood. Comprehensive safety protocols were followed to ensure a smooth and hygienic process. Medical professionals were on hand to conduct health screenings and assist donors throughout the procedure. The blood donation camp not only helped replenish local blood banks but also fostered a sense of community and altruism among participants, highlighting Tehzeeb's commitment to promoting health and well-being within the community.

15th August (Independence Day)

On Independence Day, our Registrar and Vice Chancellor led a unique initiative to promote positive changes and preserve the environment by planting saplings. The "New Era of True Independence" was celebrated by hoisting the Indian tricolour on August 15th, accompanied by the student choir singing the National Anthem. Our esteemed Vice Chancellor delivered an enlightening speech, followed by a Vote of Thanks to conclude the event.

19-20th August (Bharatotsav)

Celebrating the diversity, richness, colours, uniqueness and the beauty of our motherland, the Cultural Committee organised the 9th edition of Bharatotsav on 19th and 20th of August, 2023 with the theme "Sone Ki Chidiya". Day 1 began on an official note with the lighting of the lamp followed by an amazing and a thought-provoking performance by the Drama Club Naqaab. The play was titled "Kuch Galat Kuch Alag". The first day took a melodious turn with the Singing Competition where the participants ranging from across the batches showed off their amazing talent. The committee concluded Day 1 by hosting a Sky-Lantern Event in the loving memory of a departed student. Day 2 began with a Quiz Competition, as part of the Bharatotsav celebrations, the committee, in collaboration with the Quiz Club, organized "Bharatdarshan," an engaging quiz competition focusing on India's rich cultural heritage, history, and diverse traditions, offering participants an educational and fun experience. Later the stage was lit by an energetic and soulful performance by the band. Up next was the Dance Competition where eager and rhythmic participants danced their way to the trophy, be it solo or group. This energetic fest came to a halt with a fun Cultural Night.

SEPTEMBER 2023

5th September (Teacher's Day)

On Teacher's Day, Tehzeeb, the cultural committee of our university, orchestrated a thought-provoking webinar exploring the transformative influence of artificial intelligence on legal education. Renowned expert and creator of “Law Bot Pro” Mukesh Mandaar led the discussion, shedding light on the evolving landscape where technology intersects with legal studies. Participants gained invaluable insights into the potential applications, challenges, and future directions of AI within the realm of legal academia. The event not only enriched our understanding but also underscored Tehzeeb's commitment to fostering intellectual discourse and embracing emerging trends in education.

In addition to the webinar, students celebrated Teachers' Day by giving personalized cards to their professors, expressing their gratitude and appreciation. These heartfelt messages added a personal touch to the celebrations.

OCTOBER 2023

2nd October (Gandhi Jayanti and Lal Bahadur Shastri Jayanti)

2nd October, 2023 was commemorated in Dr. Ram Manohar Lohiya National Law University with offering floral tribute to the two stalwarts, Gandhiji and Shastriji on their birth anniversary.

The event, organized by the Cultural Committee, began with a prayer and presentation of the floral tribute by respected Vice Chancellor and the esteemed faculty.

Thereafter, the master of ceremony of the event invited a student speaker to pay homage to the Father of our Nation and the second Prime Minister of our country with their speech illustrating the many ways these great men changed the course of our future for the better and the values they shared that inspire us even today.

To conclude the day, our honorable Vice Chancellor imparted wisdom to the students and elaborated on the theme with personal and insightful anecdotes.

18th-19th October (OHR)

The Cultural Committee organized the Western-themed event, "Fall of the Dead," as part of the OHR festivities. This event celebrated the rich cultural heritage of Western traditions, with a particular focus on the vibrant and colorful festivities of the Fall of the Dead.

The first day of the event commenced with great enthusiasm as participants showcased their singing talents in the Singing Competition. The melodies resonated with the spirit of Dia de los Muertos, infusing the atmosphere with energy and excitement. The participants' performances were commendable, reflecting their dedication and passion for music.

As the day progressed, the event took a thrilling turn with the introduction of the Murder Mystery Activity. Participants engaged eagerly in solving the mystery, demonstrating their analytical skills and teamwork. The intricate plot and suspenseful storyline kept everyone on the edge of their seats, making it an unforgettable experience for all attendees.

Day 2 of the event commenced with renewed energy as participants geared up for the Dance Competition. The stage came alive with mesmerizing performances that showcased a fusion of traditional Western dance forms and contemporary styles. The choreography was creative, and the dancers exhibited grace and precision in their movements, captivating the audience and judges alike.

Throughout both days, the event successfully captured the essence of Dia de los Muertos, with vibrant decorations, traditional attire, and cultural elements integrated into every aspect of the festivities. Participants and attendees alike embraced the spirit of the occasion, fostering a sense of camaraderie and celebration.

In conclusion, the "Dia de los Muertos" event organized as part of OHR was a resounding success, thanks to the dedication and hard work of the Cultural Committee, participants, and volunteers involved. The event provided a platform to celebrate and honor the rich cultural heritage of the Western traditions, leaving a lasting impression on everyone who attended. We look forward to future events that continue to promote cultural exchange and appreciation within our community.

JANUARY 2024

26th January (Republic Day)

This significant event aimed to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India and honor the values of democracy, freedom, and unity.

The Republic Day festivities commenced with the solemn ceremony of flag hoisting. The National Flag was unfurled with pride and reverence, symbolizing our commitment to the ideals enshrined in the Constitution. Following the flag hoisting, the entire university gathered as the choir rendered a soul-stirring rendition of the national anthem. The harmonious voices echoed through the campus, evoking a sense of patriotism and unity among the attendees.

The highlight of the event was the inspiring speech delivered by the Vice Chancellor. In his address, he reflected on the significance of Republic Day and emphasized the importance of upholding democratic principles and values in our society. He highlighted the achievements of our nation and called upon the students to contribute positively towards nation-building and societal progress. The speech resonated deeply with the audience, instilling a sense of responsibility and pride in being citizens of India.

In conclusion, the Republic Day celebration was a momentous occasion that brought together the college community in a spirit of patriotism and solidarity. The flag hoisting ceremony, the singing of the National Anthem, and the enlightening speech by the Vice Chancellor served as reminders of the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters and the responsibilities we bear as citizens of a democratic nation. The Organizing Committee expresses its gratitude to all participants, volunteers, and staff members who contributed to the success of this memorable event.

FEBRUARY 2024

15th – 18th February (Riwaayat)

The Organizing Committee is delighted to highlight Riwaayat, the flagship event of the Cultural Committee. Tehzeeb aimed to celebrate the diverse cultural heritage of our society through a series of captivating performances and competitions. Spanning four days, the event showcased the talents of our students and fostered a sense of unity and appreciation for the arts.

Day 1: The inaugural day of Riwaayat commenced with great fervor as the event was inaugurated by esteemed guests and dignitaries. The day unfolded with a thought-provoking Nukkad Natak (street play) that addressed contemporary social issues, captivating the audience with its powerful message. Following this, Nrityanjali, the Dance Competition, and Alaap, the Singing Competition, enthralled the spectators with mesmerizing performances, showcasing the rich cultural diversity and artistic prowess of our participants. The four-day Riwaayat celebration also held a blood donation camp on the first day, making valuable contributions to local blood banks and demonstrating the community's commitment to health and solidarity.

Day 2: The second day of Riwaayat kicked off with the finals of Alaap, where participants showcased their vocal talents in a highly competitive environment. This was followed by an intellectually stimulating Quiz Competition that tested the knowledge and wit of the participants. The day concluded with Spring Muse- the Fashion Show, a group performance event that mesmerized the audience with its creative and captivating performances.

Day 3: Day 3 of Riwaayat commenced with the finals of Spring Muse (solo), where individual performers showcased their artistic abilities and captivated the audience with their talent. This was followed by Monoranjana, the Mono Act Competition, which showcased the versatility and acting prowess of the participants. The day continued with the finals of Nrityanjali, which featured breathtaking dance performances, and concluded with Rangmanch, the Theatre Competition, which left the audience spellbound with its gripping narratives and stellar performances.

Day 4: The final day of Riwaayat began with Rangeen Alfaz, the Slam Poetry Competition, which provided a platform for participants to express themselves poetically and creatively. The event concluded with Thunderstruck- the Music Band Competition, an electrifying performance that left the audience in awe with its dynamic choreography and energetic performances.

Conclusion: In conclusion, Riwaayat was a resounding success, thanks to the dedication and hard work of the Cultural Committee, participants, and volunteers involved. The event provided a platform for students to showcase their talents, celebrate cultural diversity, and foster a sense of unity and appreciation for the arts. We look forward to future editions of Riwaayat, which will continue to enrich our university community with its vibrant and diverse cultural offerings.

MARCH 2024

18th March (Holi Celebration)

The Cultural Committee organized a lively Holi party, bringing together students for a joyous celebration of colors. The event featured traditional music, dance, and festive activities, creating a vibrant and cheerful atmosphere. The Holi party not only honored the spirit of the festival but also provided an opportunity for students to relax, have fun, and create lasting memories.

APRIL 2024

14th April, 2024 (Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Jayanti)

On April 14, 2024, Tehzeeb organized a momentous event commemorating Ambedkar Jayanti, paying homage to Dr. B. R. Ambedkar. The event was meticulously planned and flawlessly executed, ensuring every aspect was managed. Everyone involved dutifully fulfilled their designated tasks.

Faculty members were cordially invited, and their participation added depth to the occasion. Students engaged in various activities, demonstrating their reverence for Dr. Ambedkar's vision.

The ceremony commenced with the solemn recitation of the Indian Pledge, symbolizing our collective commitment to Dr. Ambedkar's ideals of equality, justice, and fraternity. Throughout the event, Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's monumental contributions to social justice, equality, and nation-building were eloquently remembered, inspiring all present to uphold his values in our daily lives. At the event, everyone paid tribute to Dr. B. R. Ambedkar by offering flowers to pay homage to his memory.

Conclusion

The Ambedkar Jayanti event in 2024 was a big success. It reminded us strongly of how Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's ideas changed things for the better. It made us promise again to work for a fair and equal society, just like Dr. Ambedkar wanted. This event echoed the important values that Dr. Ambedkar believed in.

July 2024 (Community Service Day)

Originally scheduled on the 30th April, the Community Service Day unfortunately had to be postponed due to unforeseen circumstances. The event was organized by Tehzeeb on 21st July where the members visited a local old age home, driven by a shared commitment to making a meaningful difference in the lives of the elderly residents. The visit aimed to offer companionship, support, and assistance to the residents while also gaining insights into their needs and desires. Throughout the day, committee members engaged in heartfelt conversations with the residents, listening to their stories, experiences, and wisdom. This not only provided companionship but also fostered mutual understanding and appreciation.

Various entertainment sessions, such as music performances, storytelling, and games, were organized to uplift the spirits of the residents and create moments of joy and laughter. Additionally, breakfast and lunch was served to the elderly, ensuring their nutritional needs are met and enhancing their overall well-being.

A team of volunteers provided basic health check-ups and wellness sessions, including simple exercises and relaxation techniques, to promote physical and mental well-being among the residents.
